BEFORE YOU COMMIT YOURSELF:

Before you commit yourself to this responsibility, I want you to understand that this ministry, like every other ministry in TCCC, depends heavily on the efforts of VOLUNTEERS. As a pastor, I want to first thank you for offering yourself to be a part of this service to God. The time you and I spend together should not be treated like a paid job, but rather like the fellowship of CO-WORKING together to shape the young minds that will fall under our care.

Your application reflects to me that you want to be 100% COMMITTED to the camp; to the staff meetings; to the training sessions before camp; to the fellow staff members; to the programs; and especially to the children. The maturity you display in your role as staff will greatly encourage me, will greatly honor God, and will greatly be of support to the other staff.
