  - Develop strategies and execute plans to grow ministry for youths and to establish ministry for young families, who are either born in or immigrated into Canada
  - Develop and implement plans to meet the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the youths and the young families
  - Recruit, equip and empower young leaders
  - Have the enthusiasm for outreach and bring youths to faith through evangelism
  - Recruit and equip adults as mentors for the youths and young families
- Minor (40% effort)
  - Build and maintain close connection with congregants through intentional discipleship
  - Participate in preaching, Sunday School teaching, and small group/fellowship gathering
  - Attend meetings at congregational and church level
  - Other duties assigned by Lead Pastor or Senior Pastor as the needs arise

QUALIFICATION REQUIRED

- A person of faith and integrity with good relationship with the Lord in personal life and in ministry
- A clear calling to serve the Mandarin-speaking youths and young families
- A graduate from an accredited seminary with MDiv., prior experience in working with youths and young families highly preferred
- A team player with willingness to be supervised
- Fluent in Mandarin, good command of English a must
- In alignment with the church statement of faith
- Pass background check prior to employment

REPORTING RELATIONSHIP

The Youth/Young Family Pastor will report to the Lead Pastor of the Mandarin congregation.

FUTURE PERSPECTIVE

The Youth/Young Family Pastor will have the opportunity to take other ministerial roles upon successfully demonstrating the required capacities.
